Emperor Charles Talks of the Miseries of War; Also of the Blessings of Peace, as if He Sought It

BERLIN, April 17 .- Emperor Charles of Austria is quoted by Bjorn Biornsen as saying in an interview at Laxemburg, near Vienna; "I believe I know war better than most of the men who are at the head of the enemy powers to-day. I know not only the financial and economic effects of war, but I know also what it means to die in the trenches. I have lived a long time in the field and have seen men fall and die at my feet. Therefore I know also, maybe better than any other Emperor or

Heavy Losses Inflicted Upon Enemy In Front of Newly Won Positions,

PARIS, April 17.-German counterattacks in force in the region of carping or hesitation, in the spirit of Ailies and Courcy were repulsed last men inspired by the cause for which night by the French, according to an Selective Conscription Bill we are fighting. Let us give to the official statement issued by the German Kaiser and his people and to French War Office. Heavy losses all their innuendoes that we are were inflicted on the Germans. Fol-

"North and south of the Oise there was intermittent artillery fighting. Our patrols brought back prisoners.

"Between Soissons and Rheims our troops are organizing the positions captured. In the region of Ailles a strong German counterattack on our new lines was broken up by our artillery and machine gun fire, which inflicted severe losses on the enemy. Other severe losses on the enemy. Other German counter-attacks in the sector of Courcy also were broken up. The weather continues to be very bad over the whole front. "In the Champagne the night was marked by more active artiliery fighting west of Auberive. Everywhere else the night was caim."

Judge Hand Dismisses Exceptions to Custom Officers' Seizure of Goods for Duty.

Mrs. Whitney Warren's alleged attempt to evade Custom House duties in bringing Paris finery into New York is branded as "deliberate fraud which would impose upon other importers forfeiture and imprisonment." by Federal Judge Hand, who to-day diamissed six exceptions filed by Mrs. Warren to the Custom officers' complaints and seizure of her goods. Judge Hand gave her attorney, William L. Wimple, twenty days in which to file his answer. Mrs. Warren was accused by the custom appraisers of undervaluing certain Paris purchases belonging to herself and two others who were with her. In dismissing the exceptions, Judge Hand said in part:

"By hypothesis the claimant tried to enter all these clothes, both of a single fraudulent undervaluation. Those of the friends must certainly suffer forfelture; they stand WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES in vicarious condemnation though insist that her own goods shall go free, even though the hypothesis prove true upon trial.
